Drug Discovery Satellite Meeting
Drug Discovery for Ion Channels XIII

Sponsored by ChanTest; Molecular Devices, LLC; Nanion Technologies, GMBH; and Sophion Bioscience

Co-Chairs
Chris Mathes, ChanTest
James Costantin, Molecular Devices, LLC
Niels Fertig, Nanion Technologies, GMBH
Morten Sunensen, Sophion Bioscience

The symposia will feature presentations from scientists using automated electrophysiology and other emerging technologies from pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies and academia who are actively involved in ion channel drug discovery. Presentations will be focused in the following areas:

- Integration of automated electrophysiology into the drug discovery process and its results
- Applications of automated electrophysiology for ion channel drug discovery (with an emphasis on new and/or novel applications)
- New developments of automated electrophysiology and other emerging technologies
