Special Issue: Martin Karplus: In Memoriam

Editors: John Kuriyan, Vanderbilt University
B. Montgomery Pettitt, University of Texas Medical Branch
Benoit Roux, University of Chicago
Andrej Sali, University of California San Francisco
Tamar Schlick, New York University
Jeremy C. Smith, University of Tennessee

To celebrate the contributions of theoretical and computational molecular biophysics pioneer Martin Karplus, Nobel Laureate in Chemistry 2013, we invite contributions of original research articles in molecular dynamics, biomolecular simulations, and related fields to a special issue dedicated to his memory.

Reviews and perspectives may also be considered, but they must be approved in advance by the editors.

Deadline for submission: September 30, 2025

- Instructions for authors can be found at: <https://www.cell.com/biophysj/authors>.
- Please include a cover letter stating that you would like to contribute to the Martin Karplus: In Memoriam special issue and please describe why the work fits into the issue.
- All accepted articles will be reviewed upon receipt and will appear online as soon as accepted, even if submitted early.
- Normal publishing charges will apply.
- Questions can be addressed to the BJ Editorial Office at BJ@biophysics.org or to (240) 290-5600.
